

PERFETTI VAN MELLE is a privately owned company, producing and distributing candies and chewing gums in more than 150 countries worldwide. Some of our most well-known and loved brands include Mentos, Chupa Chups, Vigorsol, Daygum, Vivident, Brooklyn and Golia.

Employing over 17,000 people and operating in 35 companies throughout the world, Perfetti Van Melle has a truly global reach.

YOU + US?

OUR OPPORTUNITY: SENSORY SCIENCE INTERN

Perfetti Van Melle is looking for a sensory science intern to join our team. The successful candidate will work on a project on discriminative tests and palatant cleaners for the confectionary category. Our sensory group can offer a solid education and our R&D a challenging and international environment.

This is a very exciting opportunity for a young scientist and we look forward to working with the intern hired as s/he grow her/his skills in our lab.

Responsibilities

- Bibliography research
- Knowledge management related to the project
- Sample, references preparation
- Conduct experiments and panels
- Set up experimental facilities and DOE
- Scheduling
- Lab duties
- Research

Requirements

Applicants should have a scientific background with some experience in sensory analysis. S/he should be proactive and be able to work alone, but also willing to work within a team of professional. Excellent research and presentation skills, knowledge of statistics, and experience with related software such as Office, MINITAB and/or XLSTAT will also be considered when reviewing applications.

Majors

Sensory Analysis, Food Technologies, Chemistry, Biochemistry, Biology, Biological Sciences, Science.

Location: Milano (Linate) - Start: October 2017 - Contract: Stage - Duration: 6 months - Compensation offered: €800 per month + internal canteen

To apply for this position please send you CV, with authorization to use your personal data in compliance with Legislative Decree 196/03, to the address: sally.davies@it.pvmgrp.com

